Changing Mobility: Data, Insights, and Delivering Innovative Projects During COVID Recovery

Staff will provide an update on performance metrics to help understand the impacts of COVID-19 to the transportation system.

Transportation Performance Measures

Recent Federal transportation rules require regional Metropolitan Planning Organizations (MPOs) to monitor and set targets for a specific set of performance measures. In 2018, NCTCOG adopted 2020 and 2022 targets for a subset of these measures related to infrastructure, congestion and air quality. This fall, the MPO will have an opportunity to adjust 2022 targets for these measures. Observed trends, project implementation and the unprecedented effects of COVID-19 will impact the decision on whether target adjustments will be recommended.

2020 Transportation Alternatives Call for Projects: Recommended Funding Awards

Staff will present a recommended summary of projects to receive funding as part of the 2020 Call for Projects for the North Central Texas Region.

IH 45 Zero Emission Corridor Plan Update

In 2019, the Federal Highway Administration (FHWA) awarded funding to NCTCOG to develop a plan for infrastructure to support both battery electric and hydrogen fuel cell electric vehicles along IH 45 from Dallas to Houston. NCTCOG is seeking stakeholder involvement from fuel providers, fleets, infrastructure developers, fuel associations, government agencies, utilities, and interest groups and will provide an update on planning progress.
